Appendices

The Municipal Census Program

The Municipal Census Program is co-ordinated by the City Of Airdrie. The City is responsible for hiring census takers, overseeing the enumeration and for tabulating, analyzing and publishing the results. In addition to providing valuable information for the City, the program also helps various provincial government departments and local authorities and agencies plan the services they provide to the residents of Airdrie. Please contact the City Clerk's office at (403) 948-8816 for any additional information you may need.

Notice to Users...

This document presents a summary of the municipal census data using standard tables. The first section of this report includes information from the 2006 census conducted between April 26 and May 14, 2006. Sections 2.0 and 3.0 include data from the 2005 census. Sections 4.0 and 5.0 of the 2005 census data was collected as additional voluntary information and may not represent opinions from the entire population. Sections 6.0 through 7.0 include data from the 2003 census.

APPENDIX B – DWELLING TYPE

Single Detached – A structure with one dwelling only separated by open space from all other structures except its garage or shed.

Single Detached with Suite – A structure built as a single dwelling but in which the basement or upper storey has been converted into a suite as another separate dwelling.

Duplex, Semi-Detached or Double House – A structure designed to contain two separate dwellings, one on top of the other or one beside the other separated by open space from all other structures.

Multi-Family (Triplex/Fourplex) – A triplex is a structure divided horizontally into three separate dwelling units, one on top of the other or three units, two of which are side by side and the third of which is either above or below both the other two. A duplex with a suite is to be considered a triplex. A fourplex is a structure divided vertically and/or horizontally into four separate dwelling units, each of which shares two common walls (or floor/ceiling). The fourplex may consist of either two units above and two below or four corner units grouped in a square.

Townhouse/Condominium – A townhouse is a dwelling unit in a row of three or more dwellings in which there are no other dwellings either above or below.
