Corb Lund to Take the Stage at the Torch Relay Celebration

AIRDRIE, ALBERTA – Corb Lund will be entertaining Airdrie residents at the Olympic Torch Relay Celebration on January 19, 2010. Lund is a roots-country singer/songwriter from Taber, Alberta who made a name for himself with hits like "The Truck Got Stuck" and "Hair in my Eyes Like a Highland Steer".

As well as the 2 set performance by Lund, the celebration will include live acts by artists presented by RBC and Coca-Cola, the lighting of the cauldron, fireworks, food, activities and more.

The Corb Lund Band was awarded Album of the Year by the Canadian Country Music Association in 2006. For more on Corb Lund, visit www.corblund.com

The official route the Olympic Torch Relay will be making through Airdrie will be announced on January 5, 2010. Everyone is welcome to line the streets to view the Relay and/or join us at East Lake Park as the Olympic Flame makes its final leg up to the stage to light the cauldron.
