FCSS Programs Awards Funding for 2011

AIRDRIE, ALBERTA – At their regular meeting on Monday, December 20, 2010, Airdrie City Council endorsed the recommendation of the Community Services Advisory Board to allocate $600,563 of the Family and Community Support Services (FCSS) Program to preventive social programs.

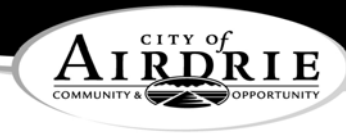

“This is a tough year for the City and its funded agencies. As the city grows, the demands for social programs are also growing,” says Clay Aragon, FCSS Coordinator, City of Airdrie. “The Family and Community Support Services Program funds prevention social services in our community.”

Prevention social services are proactive, intentional and assertive strategies to help individuals, families and the community to become more resistant to crisis. City of Airdrie Administration presented four options for allocating the 2011 FCSS Program funding within a 26 per cent tax contribution, and two theoretical options at 28 per cent and 33.5 per cent respectively. The following not-for-profit organizations will be receiving the below funding in 2011:
