

Corporate Annual Pass Program

1 + 1 + 1 + 1 = Savings!

You could save 20% on your Genesis Place annual pass!

How does it work?

We offer both employee pay and employer pay options. In employee pay, the employee pays for their own pass annually. If your company offers a fitness membership as a benefit of employment, they can pay for your pass annually.

Corporate Annual Pass holders have access to:

Apple fitness centre

Aquatic area

Drop in fitness classes

Drop in aquatic fitness classes

Gymnasium & field house

Indoor track

Space availability is dependant on booking and program use in areas.

How to qualify:

In order to qualify, your company must meet the following requirements:

- Must have a minimum of four employees purchase passes at the same time.
- Maintain a minimum of four employee passes at all times.
- Employees can upgrade their pass to a family pass. The discount only applies to the employee's portion of the pass.
- Proof of employment must be provided during sign up of corporate program.

How do I apply?

- Assign a contact person from your company to represent your group and then complete and return the Corporate Annual Pass application, available at genesishplace.ca. There must be a minimum of four employees at all times.
- Upon approval, there will be a two week period where the four employees can sign up for their Annual pass. This date is to be determined between the designated person within your company and Genesis Place representative.
- Employees will complete an application and sign up with Customer Service.
- Corporate passes are to be paid in full at the time of purchase.
- Each employee must provide the following documentation:
 1. A current pay stub indicating employee name, date and company name or
 2. Letter from HR or administration indicating the information above.
- Please note this plan cannot be combined with any other promotion or pass plan. Fees are applied on an annual program only; no other monthly plans or multiple use plans will be considered.
- The pass is subject to rules and regulations put forth by Genesis Place, which are listed on the Corporate Annual Pass application.

Need additional help? Email us at recreation.wellness@airdrie.ca to request information. A Genesis Place representative will be in contact with you to help you qualify for this discounted program!

Should the company not maintain the minimum of four Corporate Annual Passes, Genesis Place has the right to switch the Corporate Annual Passes back to a regular pass at the current rate and original start date. Should this occur, Genesis Place will contact and advise the applicable pass holders. It is the responsibility of the company to monitor the corporate employee minimum.
