

Did you know?

A portion of your yard is made up of a 'utility right of way.'
This is an easement of private land that allows the City and utility companies access to buried utilities.

