Airdrie's Western Canada Games Committee Says Thanks!

AIRDRIE, ALBERTA – Airdrie's Western Canada Summer Games Committee thanks volunteers and citizens for their work in support of the bid to host the 2015 Western Canada Summer Games. The committee extends congratulations to the Regional Municipality of Wood Buffalo as the successful host.

“Our community volunteers delivered an excellent bid package and facilities tour,” says Peter Brown, Mayor, City of Airdrie. “We are sending our best wishes to Wood Buffalo, we know they will do an excellent job of hosting the games and represent Alberta very well.”

“I want to thank Airdrie's City Council for their commitment and support of the bid committee,” says Linda Bruce, Chair of the Western Canada Summer Games Bid Committee. “The wealth of information that was compiled in support of this bid will be useful in the future.”
